

ROV HOOK

ROV operated hook for efficient subsea lifting operations.

The IMENCO ROV Hook has been manufactured and used for close to 10 years and is renown in the subsea market for its ease of use and dependability. Easy connection and release by ROV makes the lifting operation safe and efficient. The hook body is made from cast iron and the latch is made from stainless steel.

Main features:

- Proven design, used worldwide for 10 years.
- Simple installation and release by ROV. No special tools needed
- Supplied with full documentation and instructions.
- Special designs available on request.

WLL / Safety Factor :	250T / 3.3:1
Dimensions:	1450 x 1060 x 455mm
Weight:	1390kg