

Otaq Gyro Frame

Gyro frame is used for subsea structure positioning or as a standard inclinometer. Heading, roll and pitch read out on the subsea display with different possibilities of accurate positioning. Can also be used with MET stab, which receptacle can be pre-installed on structure.

Other equipment integrations available on request. Battery with ROV on/off switch

Specifications

Dimensions	482mm x 399mm x 624mm
Weight	49kg including MET stab assembly
Weight	64kg Including Octans Gyro
Weight in water	approx. 25 kg
Battery capacity	10Ah (More capacity available on request)
Depth rating	3000MSW

